Foreword

We wish to express our grateful appreciation to the ones who have made it possible for us to have a year-book in which we can preserve memories of our school days.

In compiling this annual we have made an effort to capture some of the highlights of school life that might bring pleasant reminders at a later date.

We hope that you enjoy this book with us.

THE STAFF OF 1963-64 .

Superintendent

I am confident this yearbook will always portray your loyalty, enthusiasm, and co-operation which was expressed in the manner your activities were conducted this year.

The co-operation shown by the parents, faculty, and student body this year has sincerely been appreciated, and I know in the future, this yearbook will recall to our minds many memorable occasions.

As this statement was once made, "The most difficult part of getting to the top of the ladder is getting through the crowd at the bottom," which seems to be very true for progress in today's world. We trust the education you receive in our school will give you the necessary motivation and desire to continue climbing from each round of the ladder to the very top and not the self-satisfaction of staying at the bottom with the crowd. Your high school education will enable you to surpass many in the crowd and a desire for the continuation of increasing your knowledge and development of many skills will accomplish your dreams in life.

Always your friend,
Roy C. Cooley

Nancy Rossetter's "stickability" to any worthwhile task makes her an outstanding Senior girl for this section of the year-book.

Sue Sisk, a witty Senior, has a spark that carries her through studies and many activities.

Covey Griffin, Senior, has made an excellent record for himself on the gridiron and in the hearts of his classmates.

The multiplicity of honors bestowed upon James Moody for the past four years makes him an "All Star" for Who's Who among Seniors.

Who's Who

Lana Gilley is that quiet, ever-dependable Junior girl who knows all the answers and displays a sweet disposition as well.

Pat - the delightful Junior whose charm and wit have won her this honor for two years.

Gayle Adcock, a Junior, is outstanding in sports and studies. He has many friends in both the student body and faculty.

Sammy McDonald - that good-looking Junior boy with an innocent look and a mischievous way, definitely occupies a big spot with both faculty and students.

Joan Martin is that pretty sophomore with a "twinkle in her eye" and a sunny smile for everyone.

The happy smile and sweet personality of Sophomore Marlene Wright are keeping her way out front with all of us.

Dark, good looking Wayne Melton is very popular with all the students. A class officer and F. H. A. Sweetheart earn for him this Who's Who rating.

David Shiflet, a Sophomore favorite and F. H. A. Sweetheart is "holding his own" to rate this spot.

Who's Who

The outstanding personality and high scholastic average of Freshman Ann Alexander have surely given her a top rating here at R. H. S.

Cute, petite Jeanette Oler always has a friendly smile for her many friends and admirers.

Nelson Spinks' good grades and nice manners have put him high on everyone's list.

Jackie Adcock, a very likable Freshman, stands well above average in every way.
